DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 14 is objected to because of the following informalities: In line 6, "tubular steel" should be –tubular sleeve–. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The independent claims all contain "hollow drill shaft" or "hollow elongate member" or "hollow drill steel". The drill steel or shaft disclosed and shown in the drawings is not hollow but rather solid. Clarification is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 3672

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-18 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,732,820. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because instant claim 1 is identical to claim 1 of 6,732,820 except for the term "hollow" and instant claim 1 does not include that the penetrating member includes a pilot bit. It would have been considered obvious to eliminate the pilot bit from claim 1 of 6,732,820 since the device could be used with any known bit including one not requiring a pilot bit. With respect to the term "hollow" the shaft of 6,732,820 is the same as the shaft now claimed and if the current shaft can be "hollow" so can the shaft of 6,732,820. As to claims 17 and 18, the method of making the drill rod is considered the obvious method of making the drill rod of 6,732,820.

Interference

Claims 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 135(b) as not being made prior to one year from the date on which U.S. Patent No. 6,220,373 was granted. See In re McGrew, 120 F.3d 1236, 1238, 43 USPQ2d 1632, 1635 (Fed. Cir. 1997) where the Court held that the application of 35 U.S.C. 135(b) is not limited to inter partes interference proceedings, but may be used as a basis for ex parte rejections.
